

Request for Use of the Lake Alice Watershed for UF Teaching or Research

On October 7, 2019 a policy titled, "Recreational Use of the Lake Alice Watershed" was adopted." Item #11, EXEMPTIONS, states that "The University or its duly authorized representatives or agents may be exempt from these rules when in the official performance of their duties and not acting inconsistent with State Law. Such exemptions must be obtained in writing from the University's Division of Environmental Health & Safety (EH&S)."

This form should be submitted to Environmental Health and Safety by UF faculty or staff to request an exemption to the policy for teaching or research use of the Lake Alice Watershed.

Brief description of the teaching or research activity and location within the Lake Alice Watershed :

Identification of principle faculty or staff making request. (Please include name, title and contact information for individual making request):

Identify other faculty or staff working under the supervision of the principal individual requesting this approval. (Please include name, title and contact information for individual all listed individuals):

Approval

Approvals are issued for a one year period but can be resubmitted annually.

Period of approval: Approval Date:_____

Expiration Date:_____

Approved by_____Date:_____